

GOALS

The founding of the NJALA inspired and formed the origination of the worldwide ALA. The two organizations enjoy a strong, mutually beneficial relationship and share the same fundamental objectives for their respective memberships:

- Develop and deliver programs and products designed to provide high-quality, competency-based education
- Strengthen the sharing of information and, especially, “best practices”
- Enhance available services and benefits
- Increase the Association’s visibility and credibility throughout the NJ legal community
- Retain and recruit members from all levels of legal management
- Maintain the Association’s strong economic base
- Increase diversity and inclusiveness within the Association and the broader legal management community
- Continually strengthen and promote an organizational structure based on the most efficient use of our resources and adherence to sound governance policies

The NJALA is a proud chapter of the ALA, the undisputed leader for the business of law, focused on the delivery of cutting-edge management and leadership products and services to the global legal community.

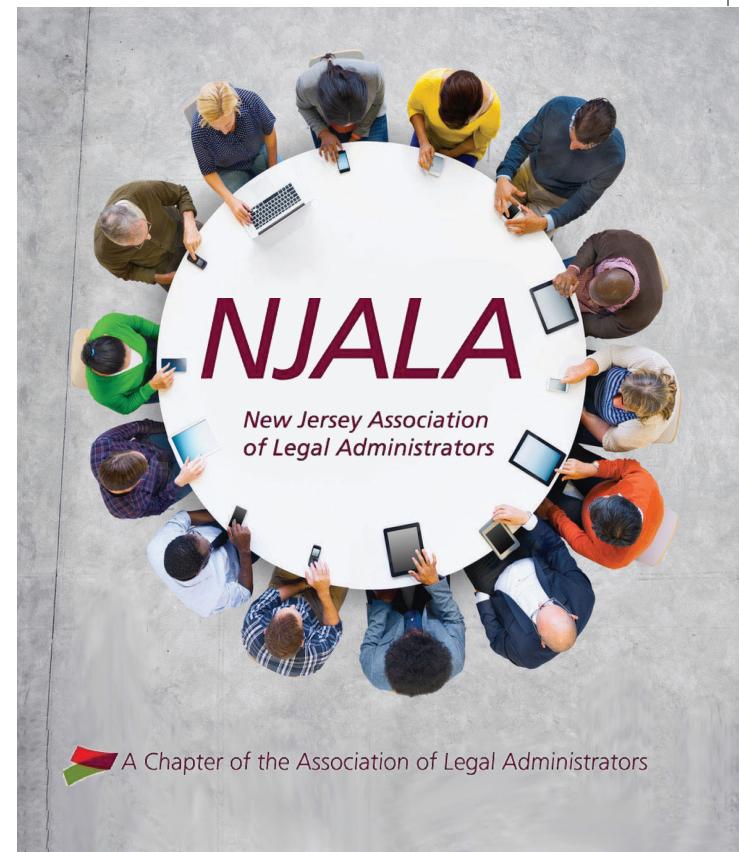

The ALA is committed to identifying and providing solutions to the most strategic and operational challenges our members and customers face today, while we prepare them for the opportunities and challenges of tomorrow.

BECOME A MEMBER

The NJALA enjoys a strong and expanding membership base, principally comprised of individuals responsible for administrative management in private law firms, corporate legal departments as well as government, judicial and legal agencies.

Those interested in legal management who do not fall into one of these groups may nonetheless join as associate members if certain guidelines are met. To join the NJALA, one must also be a member in good standing of the ALA.

Information and membership application for both the NJALA and ALA may be found on their websites: www.njala.net and www.alanet.org
